ing his long illness. The 3 Father James Heath &
6 Brother taught me
Gralton Sunday School.

(3).
The Poet brother Joseph went to New Zealand. He had 3 daughters the eldest one married & went to live in America, & rather a surprising ^{thing} happened in a library there, she came across a book of her Uncle's Poems, I don't suppose you would find one anywhere in a library in this country.
The second daughter took a book to read in a park in Wellington.
New Zealand & left the book on the seat with her name & address in this was found by a gardener working in the park & strange to relate he was a native of Brown Edge, less than 4 miles from where she was born at Gralton He returned the book & struck up a friendship which resulted in marriage.

I knew your father, also you ~~book~~ Uncle Walter & your Grandmother, with whom I stayed for about a month at Dairy House Bank. I did not know your Grandfather, he must have died when I was very young.
I will now conclude hoping this will be of some interest to you.
is answer to your query.
Sincerely Yours,
Walter Heath
